Presid't Walmsley Denounces Cotton Manipulation.

HAS BANEFUL INFLUENCE

Head of New England Cotton Manufacturing Association Says Supremacy of New England is Unassailable-To Increase Exports.

(By Associated Press.)

LENOX, MASS., September 30.-When President Herbert E. Walmsley, of New Bedford, to-day gave the call to order for the semi-annual meeting of the New England Cotton Manufacturers' Association, nearly 200 members were present. ation, nearly 200 members were present. In his address President Walmsley urged the young men in the association to come to the front and assume their share in the work of the association. He referred to the unsatisfactory condition of the cotton trade at the present time, and said the past few months had been one of the most difficult periods ever experienced.

rienced.
"The prevailing quietude in the trade," he said, "has undoubtedly been intensified by the raw material situation.
"It is a deplorable circumstance," he continued, "that the perniclous practice of cornering such a necessary staple as cotton should be possible, demoralizing and paralyzing for the time being an industry of such immense wealth to individuals and to the nation as that of coland paralyzing for the time being an industry of such immense wealth to individuals and to the nation as that of cotton manufacturing, throwing out of employment and reducing to the verge of starvation the thousands of families whose very existence is dependent woon the continued and steady operation of the factories where they find employment. The baneful influence of this speculative manipulation of cotton is a matter for serious concern, and for which there can be no justification whatsoever.

Interests."

In referring to the cotton manufacturing in the South, President Walmsley said; "We warmly congratulate the South on the great development of its natural and industrial resources. There is surely ample room for both North and South.

"The supremacy of cotton manufacturing in New England will continue to be unassaliable."

A resolution was adopted recognitive.

STATE COMMITTEE

Interesting Meeting Scheduled for To-Morrow at Murphy's Hotel.

The Democratic State Central and Executive Committees will meet at noot to-morrow at Murphy's Hotel. This assembly of the sixty committeemen promises to be the largest held in the past two years, the others having been but poorly attended by members, who sent proxies instead. Thus it has so happened that in many of the meetings ten to twenty-five members. The coming meeting is for counsel, and the attendance of every member is desired. The State chairman desires to ascertain just what the local conditions are in all parts of the State in order that he may intelligently prepare for a campaign in which the control of the State's legislative branch of government is involved. There are no factional issues up for consideration, and so far as known none will be before the committee for consideration. The State is divided into ten congressional districts, and each congressional districts, and each congressional district has five members of the State Central Committee. Thus with the entire fifty members the chairman will get the benefit of the committeeman's knowledge of the pasty prospects in his county and adjoining counties, whether there is anathy or not, just where the most formidable opposition to Democratic nominees may be expected, and all other information desired bly of the sixty committeemen promises to be the largest held in the past two to combat anti-Democratic aspirants for the General Assembly.

An attempt will almost certainly be made to inject the treasurership nomination contest in Henrico into the State Committee meeting, but it is said that it is doubtful that the committee has any jurisdiction in the matter. Many predict that the State Committee will refuse to intervene, and will refor the contestants and contestee to the courts for construction of the statutes.

NAME OF FORD'S

HOTEL A MEMORY

The name of Ford's Hotel disappeared yesterday after figuring for many years as a place of public entertainment in this city. The hotel still stands and will be renovated and then reopened and operated as The Powhatan, but it has closed its doors forever as Ford's Hotel. The hostelry least night closed for about three years, retired last night, but have not announced their plans for the future. Colonel George L. Peyton and Captain R. M. Berkeley, the new lessees, last night assumed control of the property under a six years' lease, and as soon as the interior improvements heretofore outlined can be made, will reopen the have not announced their plans for the future. Colonel George L. Peyton and Captain R. M. Berkeley, the new lessees, last night assumed control of the property under a six years' lease, and as soon as the interior improvements heretofore outlined can be made, will reopen the hotel. They promise that it will swing its doors wide open for the Horse Show and continue operation without interruption thereafter.

Last night the property looked dismal and deserted. Its register was closed and the lobby dimly lighted, the clerks and a few habitues sat around in the reception room, but prospective guests wer notified that the hostelry would be close notified that the hostelry would be closed for guests for a week or ten days. From to-day forth the hotel will be known as The Powhatan, a return to its ante-bellum name. The rates of the renovated and rehabilitated house will be fixed at from $2 to $3 per day, according to accommodations desired. It will be conducted on the American plan. Baths will be put in, everything brightened and renewed and its culsine and service will be made a feature hereafter.

At the Jefferson are: Branch K. Miller and wife and Miss Miller, New Orleans; J. T. Glenn, Chester, S. C.; A. S. Goth, Chambersburg, Pa.; A. C. Eckert, Samuel H. Lichty, A. C. Bedford, I. W.
